

MARIN REGIONAL OCCUPATIONAL PROGRAM

2018-2019 COURSE OFFERINGS

The Marin Regional Occupational Program (ROP) is administered by the Marin County Office of Education. The classes provide both entry level and advanced career technical education that enables students to enter the job market, upgrade existing skills, or transfer to more advanced training. There is no fee for high school students. Moderate fees are charged for adults.

ROP classes are project based and may be taken for consecutive semesters. Several classes have articulation agreements with the College of Marin or receive “A-G” credit for the UC/CSU system. Students may obtain more information by consulting with their school counselors or by contacting the ROP office.

Please Note: Most high school classes are given during the school day. As school schedules often change, we request that you please contact the high school to obtain time and day information for a specific class sections. Contact telephone numbers are provided at the end of this document.

For additional information, please contact the ROP office at (415) 499-5860 or at (415) 491-6639. Marin ROP Website is at http://www.marinschools.org/rop
